

AN ICE FAMINE IS THREATENED

Raleigh Ice Manufacturers Taxed to the Limit.

WATER COMPANY RAISES RATES.

The Consumer Must Pay for the Tax on the Company—Raleigh Takes a Game from Wilmington at Baseball.

RALEIGH, N. C., July 7.—Special.—Raleigh is just on the verge of an ice famine here while the thermometer ranges around the 100 mark. The two ice factories are straining the capacity of each to the utmost to pull through until a change in the temperature, but warn their patrons of the threatened famine.

The Water Company here has raised its rates from 25 to 29 per cent. higher. It is claimed that the company has raised its rates to meet the tax that has recently been put upon it, for until very recently no taxes had been collected from the company.

RALEIGH, 4. WILMINGTON, 1. Raleigh beat Wilmington yesterday by a score of 4 to 1. Persons, of the Raleigh team, made one of the finest plays ever seen here. He caught a fly, cutting off two runs and came within a foot of cutting off a third.

Prof. Henry M. Wilson, of Baltimore, has been appointed textile instructor for the Agricultural and Mechanical College. Mr. Earle Carter, of High Point, has been employed as instructor in carpenter work, wood carving, etc.

COUNTY POPULISTS. The County Populist Convention has been in session here to-day. Senator Butler spends much of his time here at headquarters, where he as State chairman directs the campaign work.

Democratic State Chairman Simmons says the national ticket is all right.

Democratic Nominee for Governor Chas. B. Aycock passed here to-day, and says that despite the heat the attendance at the speaking has been exceptionally good.

A TEST CASE SETTLED.

City Council Elects Its Standing Committees—Non-Commissioned Officers.

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 7.—Special.—Mr. D. S. Russell, the newly-elected City Sergeant, has appointed Mr. C. A. Goss as Deputy City Sergeant.

Assistant Surgeon John P. Anderson, of this city, now in the Marine Hospital Service of the United States Navy, has been ordered from the Consul General's office at Marseilles, France, to Vienna, Austria, to study in the bacteriological laboratories of that city, to report on progress of contagious diseases and to advise with the authorities on immigration matters.

Mr. A. J. Huff, agent of the McCormick Harvesting Machine Company, who was tried at King George court, July term, for selling machine on the court green without a license, was discharged. The trial was presided by the county authorities as a test case.

The Andrews Chapel congregation, in Stafford county, is thinking of building a new house of worship, and has appointed Messrs. M. E. Evans, T. E. Fleming and John W. Payne a committee to report on the cost and feasibility of erecting a new structure.

Mr. William Thacker, of Louisa county, father of Mrs. Robert Hightell, of this city, died a few days ago, aged seventy-two years.

The City Council, having broken its several deadlocks, has settled down to business, and Mayor M. G. Willis has appointed the following standing committees for the next two years: Finance—E. D. Cole, W. S. Embrey, T. L. Perry, W. H. Harkump, C. W. Jones, Streets—W. S. Embrey, E. D. Cole, S. Bradford, Water—M. S. Chancellors, G. W. Wroten, E. D. Cole, Ordinances—J. P. Rowe, W. E. Bradley, T. McCracken, Light—T. McCracken, J. P. Rowe, E. Bradley, M. J. Gately, J. P. Rowe, Auditing and Claims—W. H. Harkump, G. W. Wroten, W. E. Bradley, Public Interest—S. S. Bradford, Police—M. J. Gately, Health and Welfare—M. J. Gately, W. Jones, W. H. Harkump, M. S. Chancellors, Fire Department—L. Perry, S. Bradford, C. W. Jones.

Captain M. B. Rowe has appointed the following non-commissioned officers of the Washington Guards and the company is now fully equipped and ready for service. Sergeants: C. O'Connor, George C. first; R. H. Carmichael, Quartermaster; J. B. Proctor, second; A. B. Bots, Jr., third; Hugh A. Herndon, fourth; W. C. Warren, fifth, Corporals: A. G. Billingsley, first; J. W. Freeman, second; J. L. Proctor, third; Lester Carter, fourth; E. M. Leavelle, fifth; J. B. Jones, sixth.

The newly-elected officers of the Knights of Pythias were publicly installed a few nights ago. Speeches were made by Rev. E. H. Forrer, District Deputy Mayor and Grand Prelate May. Music was rendered and refreshments served.

Miss Nannie D. Barney, of this city, who was to have taken passage on the German Lloyd steamer Saale, burned in New York harbor, will sail on the Cunarder Utilla, from Boston, to-day for Europe.

Miss Anna Coffman Barber, daughter of Mrs. A. W. Barber, of Stafford county, will be married July 17th at "Bellefonte," the home of the latter, to Mr. L. L. Pond, of Sussex county.

Mrs. A. T. Embrey, who has been extremely ill for some time, is somewhat improved.

The Wheat Will Average Three-Fourths of a Crop.

WOODSTOCK, VA., July 7.—Special.—The Sunday-schools of the Christian churches of Shenandoah county will hold a reunion picnic at Fisher's Hill on July 25th, at which time a number of speakers will deliver addresses appropriate to the occasion.

The farmers of this section are busy threshing their wheat crop. Reports state that the quality of the wheat is very good, but the straw is short. The average may run over three-fourths of a crop.

Mrs. James A. Sommer, a well known and respected citizen of Strasburg, Va., died at his home on Thursday night, aged sixty-six years. Mr. Sommer served throughout the war as a Confederate soldier.

Mr. Benjamin Pravel was overcome by heat on Wednesday, while working on a field belonging to Captain S. H. Bowman. The returns of the Land Assessors for the six districts in Shenandoah county show an increase in valuation of $12,240 over the assessment of 1899, and aggregates $150,220, which is divided as follows: Lee District, $22,887; Ashby District, $25,841; Madison District, $22,482; Johnston District, $24,487; Shenandoah District, $18,013, and Davis District, $27,510.

Mr. Charles Wineburg and Miss Bernice Fox, both of this county, were married by Rev. S. A. Hittner at Red Banks, while seated in their buggy, on Wednesday, July 6, 1900.
